Subj- Request of planned to conduct a seminar of Trans* Community Empowered Program

I'm swetha sudhagar director of BORN 2 WIN social welfare trust. We are regularly working for the empowerment of transgender and we done lot of work's to empower transgender community in the society. This week is joy of giving week so our BORN 2 WIN social welfare trust planned to conduct a seminar on 5th October in your collage to make batter understanding about the transgender community in the society and make a better environment for the transgender community to make more effective and this give lot of understanding about the transgender to the students so permit us to conduct seminar program in your college and make participation of all students in your collage.

About Us

Born2Win Social Welfare Trust is a registered trust founded and led by a Transgender woman. The Trust's mission is to create a platform for the integration of the Trans* communities with the mainstream while facilitating education and employment opportunities for them. This is done in the following ways –

1. Recognizing achievers from among gender non-conforming / Trans* communities in Tamilnadu in order to create positive role models for the Trans* community to look up to and emulate.
2. Providing Trans* persons the platform to showcase their talents and realize their latent potential over time.
3. Facilitating the process of turning this potential into a skill to boost employability.
4. Facilitating the completion of basic education and pursuing of higher education for Trans* persons thus inclined, further increasing employability.

The ultimate vision is to be a medium of integrating marginalized gender non-conforming individuals / groups with what is considered to be “mainstream” society.

In addition to rehabilitating members of the community, the team provides support to women in need, children of single mothers, HIV+ children, and children with cancer in an attempt to show that Trans* persons are socially conscious people too.

Dear Dr.Bino Thomas,

This is continuation of our conversation we had in the conference in NIMHANS.

On February 21st and 22nd, 2019, Department of Social Work, Patrician Arts and Science College, Adyar, Chennai, Tamilnadu and The Ministro Foundation, hosts National Conference on “Youth Wellbeing-Challenges: and Perspectives”.

More than 500 students, scholars and academicians from different parts of the country are to take part in this Conference.

I would really appreciate your presence in this occasion as a speaker On February 21st, 2019. It will be an opportunity for the students from different parts of the country to listen your enlightening talk.

The conference theme “Youth Well being: Challenges and Perspectives” aims to explore the contemporary challenges among youth and identify positive measures require for their well-being and development at all levels This endeavour will help to instill the value of positivism in the youth in order to motivate them and to infuse the faith in optimism among them, so that their attitude, behaviour, thought, speech, and actions can be moulded accordingly.

The Conference deliberations will be on the following themes:

- Youth and Economic Opportunity
- Youth and Health
- Youth and Education
- Youth and their Safety and Security
- Youth and Citizen Participation
- Youth and ICT

About our College and Department.

Patrician College of Arts and Science, established in 2001, is a Christian minority co-educational self-financing institution affiliated to the University of Madras. It was instituted by the Brothers of St. Patrick, a congregation established by Bishop Daniel Delany on 2nd February 1808, in Ireland.

The Department of Social Work had its humble beginning in the year 2010 with the MSW course offering two specializations, Human Resource Management and Medical & Psychiatric Social Work. The department initiated the BSW programme in the year 2015 and added Community Development as an additional specialization in 2018. In 2018 the University of Madras gave permission to initiate the M.Phil. programme.

It is an honour and privilege to invite you to this conference.

I look forward to your positive confirmation. It will be an honor for us and indeed for the delegates of this conference.

Yours truly,

Co-Convener
