Independence Day Celebrations

August 15th held a special place in our hearts as a great day and a proud moment for every Indian. There was celebration in the air and everyone took pride to be an Indian. Our College too was all set to celebrate the 69th Independence Day. Everyone in the campus was geared up and enthused for the momentous occasion. To encourage our students, competitions on Oratorical and Essay Writing were conducted on the topic “My India, My Pride” on 31st July 2015. The oratorical competitions were conducted in the following assemblies and the winners were given prizes on the day of celebrations.

Verses from holy Bible, Quran and Bhagavad Gita were recited by our student council members.

The Principal Dr. Fatima Vasanth hoisted the flag and the student council Chairperson took the pledge on behalf of the student community. Patriotic songs were sung by our college choir; Students spoke about the importance of the Independence Day and expressed their unity through patriotic songs and poems. Dr. Ahila Sivashankar, Head, Dept. of Tamil gave speech in Tamil about “Unity”.

The day was celebrated with great enthusiasm. Sweets were distributed at the end of the program to all our staff and students.

REPUBLIC DAY- A DAY OF PRIDE

The Republic Day is celebrated as the day when India became a democratic republic. In India Republic Day honours the date on which the Constitution of India came into force on 26 January 1950. The entire nation comes alive with patriotic fervour on this day.

This historic occasion becomes a national festival with the involvement of people from all over the country. The day symbolises the unity of the nation as it brings together people from different castes, creed, religions and regions to celebrate the day with the pride of being an Indian.

Our college celebrated the 67th Republic Day on 26th January 2016. Rev. Bro. M.K. Francis graced the occasion with his presence and hoisted the national flag along with Director/Secretary Dr. Bro. S. Arockiaraj, Principal Dr. Fatima Vasanth, Vice-Principal Dr. Geetha Doss and PCEC head Dr. Gnanapushpam.

The choir group “Shamrocks” presented the patriotic song “Achamachamillai”. The whole College joined the choir and the song reverberated in the surroundings. It was followed by a beautiful speech by the students on the topic “Humanism” followed by a sola patriotic song which spread a wave of love for our country.

In lieu of the Republic day celebration various competitions like Hindi, Tamil and English elocutions, patriotic singing and essay writing were conducted and prize winners were honored.

The students dispersed after snacks with the image of the fluttering tricolor in their minds.

EVOLUZIONE 2015

Evoluzione 2015, the annual Collegiate Culturals was organized by the Fine Arts Club on the 18th and 19th of September 2015. An ‘A’ grade NAAC accredited Institution, it is befitting that in its 15th year, the College sets itself the goal of organizing it as an event that will establish its growing stature in the city. Thus, for the first time in the history of the College, the organizing committee with the support of the Management, took the bold decision of conducting it as a mega event in the Open air Auditorium with LED backdrop, full fledged audio and lighting. The task was entrusted to Mr. Karthik of Chennai Vendors, an alumnus of the College. Another first this year was bringing in sponsors for the Culturals, which helped in giving the college more visibility among companies in Chennai.

The Off stage events were conducted on 15th and 16th of September after 1.30 pm so that the academic sessions were not disturbed. The fifteen off stage events covered all areas of creativity and oratorical skills. Three new events were introduced - Cooking without Fire, Sing O Mania and Jewellery Designing. It was a resounding success with students participating in large numbers using innovative methods.

The On stage events were held with much fanfare on the 18th and 19th September from 8.30 am to 4 pm. The events kick started with the Inaugural ceremony on the 18th and the Chief Guest of the day was famous play back singer Thiru VelMurugan. The Guest of Honour was Cine actor Thiru OAK Sundar. The events of the day followed soon after and the campus resounded with the musical artistry of the student community. Over a period of two days twelve on-stage events were conducted covering the genres of music, dance, variety shows, creative thinking (channel surfing and adaptune). The grand finale was Concept walk which showcased the design sensibility and confidence of the student. The overall participation and healthy competitive spirit witnessed among the students ensured the success of Evoluzione 2015.

The Valediction Ceremony was held on 19th September at 3.30 pm and the Chief Guest for the same was well known cine actor Thiru Sathish. The results of the Cultural extravaganza overturned many predictions. The Department of Commerce made a major breakthrough by winning the Evoluzione trophy 2015 after a gap of 10 years with 175 points. The runner up trophy was won by the Department of Visual communication with 165 points.. The coveted title of Mr. Evoluzione title was won by first year student, Edwin of Commerce department with 40 points and Ms. Evoluzione was won by Hepzibah of English department with 35 points. The title of Mr. Patrician was won by Vignesh of the Department of Visual communication while Ms Patrician was lifted by Nikita Fraser of the Department of Management.

The resounding success of Evoluzione 2015 would not have been possible without the support of the Management and Staff , teaching and non teaching, our generous Sponsors and Chennai vendors, the event managers. We place on record our thanks to everyone who have contributed with their time, effort and finance to make Evoluzione 2015 a truly memorable one.
