

Report of 2015-16

Name of the Event: Signature Campaign on Elimination of Child Labour

Date: 12/6/2015

The Department of Social Work took an initiative to campaign against child labour. The programme was to make the students realize the importance of a child's right to education. The Resource person from an NGO, JeevaJyothi gave an informative talk. To create awareness among school students, they initiated a postcard and signature campaign against child labour. The collected post cards were sent to President's office, Delhi.

Students and faculty participating in the Signature Campaign against Child Labour

Name of the Event: Road safety week

Date: 23rd -30th September 2015

National Service Week was celebrated from 23rd to 30th September, 2015. NSS volunteers initiated an awareness programme on road safety in the College. The objectives of this programme were:

- To ensure that all students wear helmets while driving.
- To inform students to possess a valid driving license.
- To get registration numbers for their vehicles.
- To give awareness on the risks of traveling in triples.

NSS volunteers creating awareness on the importance of wearing helmet

Name of the Event: Republic Day celebrationsDate: 26/1/2016

The college celebrated the 67th Republic Day on 26th January 2016. Rev. Bro. M.K. Francis graced the occasion with his presence and hoisted the national flag along with Director/Secretary Dr. Bro. S. Arokiaraj, Principal Dr. Fatima Vasanth, Vice-Principal Dr. Geetha Rufus and PCEC head Dr. Gnanapushpam. The choir group “Shamrocks” presented the patriotic song “Achamachamillai” which was followed by inspiring speeches by faculty and students on the topic “Humanism”. Various competitions like elocutions and essay writing in Hindi, Tamil and English were conducted and prize winners were honored.

Bro. Francis, Superior of the Patrician brothers, Chennai hoisting the national flag on Republic Day

Prize winners of the Republic Day competitions

Name of the Event: De-addiction Awareness Programme

Date: 24th June 2015

The Department of Social Work organized an awareness programme on De-addiction to instill confidence and belief in the self. The Resource Person Dr. Adithi and her team from T.T. Ranganathan Clinical Research Foundation, Adyar enlightened the students on the consequences of drug abuse.

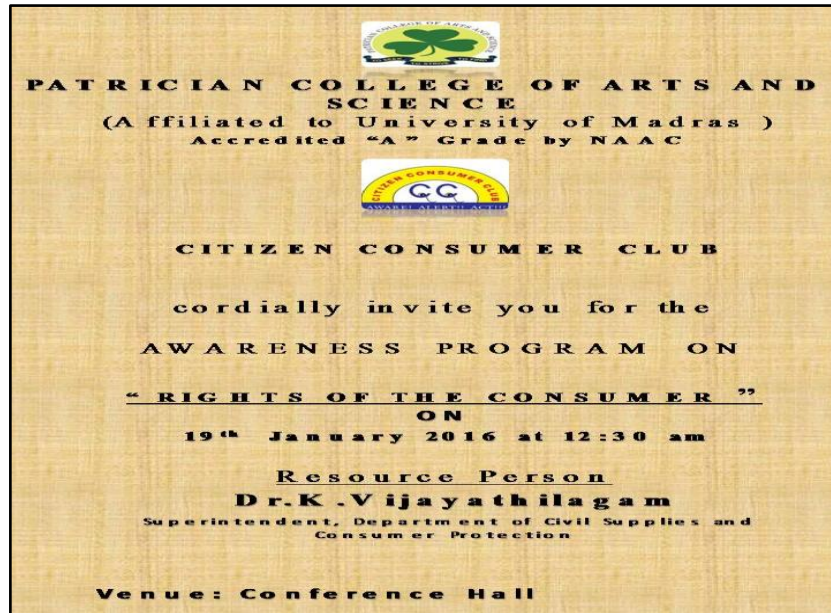

Dr. Adithi, T.T. Ranganathan Clinical Research Foundation, addressing the Students on Drug abuse

Name of the Event: Seminar on Rights of the Consumer

Date: 19/1/2016

The Citizen Consumer Club organized a seminar on “RIGHTS OF THE CONSUMER” on 19th January 2016. The Resource person of the day was Dr. K. Vijayathilagam, Superintendent, Department of Civil Supplies and Consumer Protection. She enumerated the various rights of the consumers to the club members.

Program Invite

TO SEEK TO FIND
TO STRIVE

Dr.Vijayathilagam, Superintendent, Dept of Civil Supplies addressing the students

Name of the Event: Street Theatre on Energy Conservation

Date: 24/2/2016

Street Theatre on “Energy conservation “ in association with Petroleum Conservation Research Association (PCRA), Government of India created awareness among the residents of Gandhi Nagar and students of the College on conservation of fuel, electricity, and LPG gas for sustainable development.

Students creating awareness on Energy Conservation with a street play.

Name of the Event: Seminar on LPG Conservation

Date: 3/1/2016

The Citizen Consumer Club and Women cell in association with PCRA organized a seminar on “LPG gas conservation” for the students. The Resource person of the day Mr. K.R. Ajith Kumar, Additional Director Petroleum Conservation Research Association (PCRA) addressed the audience on the importance of conservation of energy and natural resources.

K.R. Ajith Kumar, Additional Director Petroleum Conservation Research Association, addressing the audience

Name of the Event: Role of Students towards Environmental Conservation

Date: 11/2/2016

On 11th February a seminar was conducted on the Topic “Role of Students towards Environmental Conservation”. Mr. Arun Krishnamoorthy, Founder, Environmentalist Foundation of India (EFI) was the Resource Person for the Seminar. He gave an informative talk on conserving nature, preserving the lakes and the natural resources. He also requested the students to volunteer for the Lake Cleanup Program organized by EFI.

Mr. Arun Krishnamoorthy, Founder, Environmentalist Foundation of India (EFI) addressing the students